THE EVENT PORTFOLIO

Discover Berlin together.

City experiences, team days and corporate events

EVENT PORTFOLIO

Your event guide to Berlin.

What brings your group to Berlin? Choose a chapter below. Select an event title to start an email enquiry about that idea.

01	Guided tours & sightseeing	3
02	On the water	6
03	Comedy & entertainment	7
04	Team activities & team building	9
05	Active Berlin experiences	12
06	Winter & Christmas events	14
07	Incentive trips to Berlin and the surrounding area	17
	Enquiries and contact	18

Group sizes and durations are planning guides. We confirm the venue, date and included services in your individual proposal.

CHAPTER 01

Guided tours & sightseeing

1 / 3

Get to know Berlin through the eyes of a local guide. Explore a neighbourhood on foot or choose a theme for a tour across the city.

Berliner Schnauze city tour

Explore the capital by bus with a guide who brings its landmarks to life through local stories and Berlin's famously dry wit.

6–1,000 people · approx. 2 hours

Comedy tour with the Bärliner Bär

Join the Bärliner Bär character for a comic take on the capital. Local nicknames and sharp observations turn the sightseeing bus into a stage.

6–800 people · up to 4 hours

Roaring Twenties tour

Trace the Weimar years from Clärchens Ballhaus to the Volksbühne. Discover how dance halls, cabarets and artists' cafés reshaped Berlin's nightlife.

20–200 people · approx. 2 hours

Hackesche Höfe & Berlin-Mitte walk

Walk through the courtyards around Hackescher Markt and discover traces of Jewish life in the neighbourhood. An evening at the CHAMÄLEON theatre can follow the walk.

2–400 people · walk approx. 2 hours

CHAPTER 01

Guided tours & sightseeing

2 / 3

Kreuzberg neighbourhood walk

Walk through Kreuzberg's SO36 district from Kottbusser Tor to Görlitzer Bahnhof. Your guide traces the squatting movement, local protests and the changes that shaped the neighbourhood.

2–400 people · approx. 2 hours

Excursion to Potsdam

Take a guided tour of Potsdam, with sights such as Sanssouci and Glienicke Bridge. For Potsdamer Schlössernacht, ask about combining your transfer with a visit to the palace park festivities.

6–1,000 people · city tour approx. 2 hours

AMPELMANN city tour

Meet the little figure on Berlin's pedestrian lights on a guided city tour. Its distinctive silhouette offers a way into the everyday history of the divided city.

Rent a Berliner – private guide

Choose a neighbourhood or a subject that interests your group. A private Berlin guide shapes the route around your interests and the time you have.

CHAPTER 01

Guided tours & sightseeing

3 / 3

Open-top bus tour

See Berlin's streets and façades from a historic open-top bus, with lively commentary from a local guide.

Berlin after dark – lights tour

See Berlin's façades after dark on a tour of selected light installations. Dates and routes follow the lighting programme.

Berlin Wall tour

Follow the former course of the Berlin Wall and discover how the border shaped everyday life on either side.

Art and history at Teufelsberg

Explore the layers of Berlin's history at Teufelsberg, where street art meets the remains of a former listening station.

CHAPTER 02

On the water

See Berlin from the deck of a riverboat, or take a more active role on the water with a canoe trip or a dragon boat race.

Private cruise on the Spree

Charter a boat for your group and see Berlin from the Spree. Choose the route and time of day, and ask about catering, a live guide or music on board.

10–800 people depending on vessel · 2–6 hours depending on route

Dragon boat racing

Paddle to the beat of a drum as your team races a dragon boat. Ask about a barbecue ashore after the race.

14–38 people · approx. 4 hours

Canoe adventure

Explore Berlin's greener waterways by canoe. In each boat, partners work together to match their strokes and keep their course.

10–80 people · 2–3 hours

CHAPTER 03

Comedy & entertainment

1 / 2

Spend the evening at a Berlin theatre or bring the entertainment to your venue. Your guests can watch a performance, join the action or try their hand behind the bar.

Casino night

Croupiers introduce your guests to roulette, blackjack or poker at mobile gaming tables. Plan a stand-alone casino evening or add it to the end of a conference.

Approx. 20–300 people · approx. 3–5 hours

Roaring Twenties party

Charleston and the spirit of 1920s Berlin set the tone for a company evening. Choose a reception, a dinner show or an evening of dancing.

30–800 people · approx. 4 hours

Cocktail workshop

After a short introduction, guests take their places behind the bar. A professional shows them how to measure, mix and shake their own cocktails.

From 8 people · approx. 2–6 hours

Blend your own gin at MAMPE

At MAMPE in Kreuzberg, blend different distillates to create your own gin. Bottle a small sample of your personal recipe to take home.

From 5 people · approx. 2–2.5 hours

CHAPTER 03

Comedy & entertainment

2 / 2

Murder mystery dinner theatre

A mystery unfolds among the dinner guests between courses. Actors perform live and invite the audience to become part of the story.

Approx. 20–200 people · approx. 3–4 hours

An evening at the Quatsch Comedy Club

Catch a stand-up show with your group at the Quatsch Comedy Club. Ask about a backstage tour, dinner or drinks to go with the performance.

6–200 people · 4–6 hours for the evening, depending on the show

Karaoke night

Guests choose their favourite songs and take turns at the microphone. Combine karaoke with a meal for a company night out.

An evening at the CHAMÄLEON

See contemporary circus at the CHAMÄLEON theatre in the Hackesche Höfe. A guided walk before the performance gives your group time to explore the surrounding neighbourhood.

CHAPTER 04

Team activities & team building

1 / 3

For a first meeting, open activity stations leave time for conversation. For colleagues who already work together, a shared puzzle or a team competition gives the day a clear goal.

Spreepark GPS treasure hunt

Small teams use GPS to track down clues in the Plänterwald woods. They bring their discoveries together to solve a final puzzle about the former East German amusement park.

Approx. 18–300 people

GPS and iPad rallies

Small groups navigate between city checkpoints using a GPS device or iPad. They earn points by solving puzzles and completing challenges along the route.

Approx. 2.5–3 hrs · Berlin-Mitte route for groups of 20 or more

Team Play

Guests choose their own stations, try an activity solo or invite a colleague to a duel. The drop-in format also works during a summer party.

Team Challenge

Teams stay together as they work their way through the stations and earn points. An awards ceremony reveals the final scores.

CHAPTER 04

Team activities & team building

2 / 3

Cooperative team challenges

At each station the group needs to communicate and rely on one another. Colleagues agree on a plan and work through the task together.

Waterside team day

A welcome, a series of challenges and a shared meal give the day its rhythm. We coordinate the waterside venue, activities, on-site hosts and catering.

40–400 people · approx. 4–8 hrs

Lakeside activity circuit at Plötzensee

At Strandbad Plötzensee, colleagues try disc golf, mini golf and table-top mini golf between team challenges. Afterwards the group can gather by the lake for snacks or a buffet.

Approx. 40–240 people · approx. 4–6 hrs

Team event at Beach Mitte

A summer programme can combine beach volleyball, a barbecue and an evening with a DJ. In winter, ice stock curling is an option for the group.

50–2,000 people depending on the format · approx. 4–6 hrs

CHAPTER 04

Team activities & team building

Event in a Box

A compact games format for your own event. We discuss the contents of the box and the time your group has available when planning the session.

Action Team Dinner

Hosted activity stations give colleagues a chance to play between conversations at the dinner table. We match the programme to the meal and the space available.

Team Olympics

Groups compete in a series of short events. The choice of disciplines depends on the space available and how active guests want to be.

CHAPTER 05

Active Berlin experiences

Explore Berlin on foot, by bike or through its sporting history. For groups that prefer to stay in one place, consider a group fitness session or archery.

Discovery Bike Tour

Explore Berlin together by bike. Discuss distance and pace in advance to find a route that suits the group and the time available.

Sightseeing run

See the city on a group run. Tell us how far your guests would like to go and what pace will work for them.

Group fitness sessions

A shared fitness session can break up a team day. We discuss intensity and duration with you so the session fits your group.

CHAPTER 05

Active Berlin experiences

Archery

After an introduction, the group tries archery and takes part in a friendly team competition. Ask about an evening archery session or a barbecue to round off the day.

25–200 people · approx. 1.5–2.5 hrs

Sport & Hops – Berlin's sporting history

A themed bus tour visits places associated with Berlin's sporting past. A brewery visit and tasting can be arranged for afterwards, subject to availability.

CHAPTER 06

Winter & Christmas events

Berlin offers very different settings for a year-end gathering. Spend the evening with your colleagues at an ice stock rink, on a riverboat, at the theatre or exploring the city's Christmas markets.

Ice stock curling for corporate groups

Small teams take turns on the ice stock rink at your company event. Depending on the venue, you can add a mulled wine reception, catering or a sit-down dinner.

Allow roughly 1–2 hrs for play · group size depends on venue and number of lanes

Crazy Christmas Market Tour

A Berlin guide shares stories on the way between two Christmas markets. The XL version allows longer stops and can include music and a welcome from Santa.

From 10 people · approx. 2 hrs by bus plus market stops

Christmas Garden at the Botanical Garden

Follow the winter trail through the Botanical Garden's light installations. Ask about a group shuttle or dinner after the walk.

20–400 people · allow approx. 4 hrs for the group evening

CHAPTER 06

Winter & Christmas events

Christmas at the Wintergarten Varieté

Acrobatics, music and dance take centre stage at the Wintergarten. Depending on the performance, the group can also arrange dinner or a buffet.

20–400 people · approx. 4 hrs including the meal

Christmas fondue at the Quatsch Comedy Club

Gather for fondue before a live stand-up show. We check dates and meat or vegetarian options with the club.

20–200 people · approx. 4 hrs

Christmas party on the Spree

Watch Berlin's illuminated riverbanks drift past on a boat chartered for your group. Depending on the vessel, you can add a buffet, a DJ or live commentary.

10–800 people depending on the boat · approx. 2–6 hrs

CHAPTER 06

Winter & Christmas events

Christmas party with live magic

Close-up magic brings the performance to your guests during dinner. Alternatively, bring the group together for a stage show.

30–800 people depending on the venue · allow approx. 4 hrs for the party

Christmas dinner and the Chamäleon Theatre

Combine a contemporary circus performance in the Hackesche Höfe with a Christmas dinner. The meal and performance times are planned around the theatre programme.

PALAZZO Christmas dinner show

Dinner and live entertainment are part of the same evening at PALAZZO. We check performance dates and menu arrangements for your group with the venue.

CHAPTER 07

Incentive trips to Berlin and the surrounding area

A shared trip makes time for conversations that are hard to fit into the working day. We plan the itinerary around your colleagues, business partners or clients.

Multi-day incentive trip

For a two-day stay or a weekend, we coordinate hotels, guest transfers and venues around a shared itinerary. Choose dining, culture or activities to suit the occasion, with DJ entertainment or childcare on request.

20–500 people · approx. 2–3 days

Three days in Berlin

Day 1	Arrival. Early arrivals can walk by the Spree after check-in. Everyone meets over a welcome dinner near the hotel.
Day 2	Discover Berlin. Choose a GPS rally in Mitte or a guided walk through the Hackesche Höfe courtyards. Lunch and a free afternoon leave time to recharge before a dinner cruise.
Day 3	Departure. Meet over breakfast before saying goodbye. Guests with a later departure can opt for a guided neighbourhood walk in Kreuzberg.

Sample itinerary. We agree the route and services for your dates.

YOUR EVENT

What are you planning?

Start with an idea, your preferred dates and the approximate number of guests. If you already have a hotel, a venue or a budget in mind, tell us when you get in touch.

info@berlin-erlebnisse.de

+49 172 4464863

berlin-erlebnisse.de

BE! Berlin Erlebnisse GmbH

Am Wiesenrain 2 · 14532 Kleinmachnow

Image production: Tectonix LLC. Images marked AI illustrate event concepts.